VOLUME CVI.--NO. 276. ALEXANDRIA, VA., TUESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 21, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

DO YOU FEEL THIS WAY.

Do you feel all tired out? Do you sometimes think you just can't work away at your profession or trade any longer? Do you have a poor appetite, and lay awake at nights unable to sleep? Are your nerves all gone, and your stomach too? Has ambition to forge ahead in the world left you? If so, you might as well put a stop to your misery. You can do it if you will. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will make you a different individual. It will set your sluggish liver to work. It will get into every vein in your body and purify your blood. It will set things right in your stomach, and your appetite will come back. If there is any tendency in your family toward consumption, it will keep that dread destroyer away. Even after consumption has almost gained a foothold in the form of a lingering cough, bronchitis, or bleeding at the lungs, it will bring about speedy cure in 98 per cent. of all cases. It is a remedy prepared by Dr. R. V Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., whose advice is given free to all who wish to write him. His great success has come from his wide experience and varied practice.

O. S. Cope haver, Esq., of Mount Union, Huntingdon Co., Pa. (Box 222), writes: "About twelve years ago I was suddenly taken with a pain in the pit of the stomach which was so violent I could not walk straight. It would grow more severe until it caused waterbrash and vomiting of a slimy yellow water. A physician told me I had a form of dyspepsia and treated me for about six months with but little benefit. Another physician told me my liver was out of order and that I had indigestion. He gave me a treatment and I got some better but only for a short time. I then tried another one, who said I had chronic indigestion, ulceration of the lining of the stomach, torpid liver and kidney affection. He treated me for more than a year and I felt much better, but it did not last. I then took to using several widely advertised patent medicines, but received no more than temporary relief. I then tried Dr. Pierce's medicines, using his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and the 'Pleasant Pellets,' and in two months' time I was feeling better than I had for years before."

Don't be wheedled by a penny-grabbing dealer into taking inferior substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be "just as good."

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

And C. Dieckman, of 193 Hendricks St., Detroit, Mich., writes: "I have always found relief from earache by using Hamlins Wizard Oil." Price 50c and $1.00.

Uncertain Conditions in Russia.

The public's feeling of uneasiness has abated but little since the workmen's council in St. Petersburg, announced that the strike would end at noon yesday, as it is realized that a new strike will be declared on the first plausible excuse.

The foreign consuls at Odessa are advising that women and children leave the city. The British women and and children will leave this week. The situation is most threatening and there are evidences of mutiny among the troops.

The members of the British colony at Odessa held a conference yesterday under the presidency of the consul and arranged at the first sign of disorder to assemble at the consulate and demand that the Russian authorities send a guard of soldiers to the consulate. If this is refused the male members of the British colony will organize an armed bodyguard and escort the colony on board British vessels, which will be held in readiness in the harbor. The British consul applied for a collective passport for the entire British colony. The American, Austrian and Italian colonies propose to take the same measure.s

Leaders of the "Reds" say they will now devote their energies to the preparation of a universal political strike to sustain the revolutionary programme when the national assembly meets. These plans, which were suddenly upset by the precipitation of the railroad strike last month, are exceedingly ambitions, involving the co-operation not only of the workmen of the cities but the peasantry, and, if possible, the army and navy.

The propaganda among the soldiers and sailors will be pushed energetically.

The leaders already claim that they have organized the peasantry in five districts of Karkoff province, the peasants having agreed not to work for the landlords when the strike is called.

They anticipate that the famine which is at the doors of almost 15,000,000 peasants of the central province, according to estimates, will prove an effective ally of the agitation, as they can promise to give the peasants land to an unlimited extent.

The plague which is moving northward from the Kirghiz Steppe, if not stamped out in the Vistula region, may also be made to serve the purpose of arousing the ignorant and superstitious peasants. The leaders will urge the proletariat everywhere to secure arms and prepare to fight for their rights.

It is significant that a delegate to the Zemstvo who presented himself as the representative of the Jewish population of Vilna, Lithuania, was excluded.

Many liberals in St. Petersburg believe that the Congress is sure to result in a split and that the radical wing, standing on its insistence upon a constituent assembly and universal suffrage, will refuse all connection with the government.

The plan loudly discussed by the extremists a fortnight ago of turning the Congress into a constituent assembly appears to have fallen through.

While no further information has been received regarding the false emperor, who was said to be marching at the head of thousands of peasants in the province of Lenza, the turbulence there has become so threatening that the government has placed the province in a state of siege.

The Disaster in English Channel.

One hundred and twenty-eight persons lost their lives in the wreck of the London and Southwestern Railway Company's steamer Hilda off the northern coast of France Saturday night, according to an official estimate given out last night in London by the officers of the company. This death-roll includes 21 saloon passengers, 80 French onion sellers and 27 of the crew.

James Gunter, the only member of the crew saved, says there was no panic on board. Attempts were made to lower the boats, but the rough sea rendered it impossible.

Gunter clung to the fittings of the top mast with nine others below him, including the chief mate and three Bretons, who died during the night of exposure.

The Hilda struck at 10 o'clock Saturday night. She was going very slowly at the time. Rockets were sent up, but there was no response. Seven minutes later the ship broke amidships and her decks were swept bare, with the exception of the few survivors who clung to the mast. They were rescued by the steamer Ada at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, after having endured 12 hours of agony.

Owing to the rough sea, together with a thick snowstorm, the captain of the Hilda probably took the buoy light of the rocks for the St. Malo lighthouse. He gave signals, which were not seen by harbor employees, and then the steamer proceeded slowly toward the light. When the Hilda struck the rocks the steamer's boiler exploded, giving the passengers no time to save their lives.

The coast near St. Malo is covered with wreckage and some cattle. Two-thirds of the Hilda's passengers were French farmers returning to France with heavy sums in gold from the sale of their yearly harvest of onions and potatoes.

The others were English families who were going to spend the winter at Dinard. The wreck lies on the beach three miles off St. Malo, showing only her mainmast and forecastle.

A correspondent went to the scene on a government steamer with the local officials. They picked up five bodies which were entangled in the rigging of the Hilda. The bodies presented a dreadful spectacle, with arms and legs twisted in all directions and hands torn with desperate struggling.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

Gowan's Pneumonia Cure

Selects Bride For Her Duke.

The old Duchess of Devonshire continues her amazingly plucky fight against neuritis, which is steadily growing worse and is now affecting her heart. She sturdily opposed the Duke's suggestion that she countermand her big house party at Chatsworth for the Derby races this week, though quite unable to go to the race track herself. The Duchess of Connaught, who was among her guests, was appalled when she saw her hostess and desired to leave immediately, considering it unkind to impose the duty of entertaining on one so desperately ill, but was persuaded that nothing would hurt the Duchess more, and the only real kindness of her now was to humor her fancy for discharging the duties of grande dame to the last.

The most extraordinary feature of her case is her keen anxiety that the Duke should marry again. In her circle it is freely rumored that she has made him solemnly promise he would marry Miss Muriel Wilson, whose beauty and talents they both have long admired. The Duchess thinks the Duke should provide a direct heir for the title, which would be rather unfortunate for his nephew, Victor Cavendish, who has long been regarded as sure of the succession.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 21, 1905.

TO A GREATER extent than any other people on earth, Americans are the victims of gross fraud in the adulteration or poisoning, of their food supplies. Every other civilized nation has a more or less efficacious law governing the purity of food. The United States has none. According to estimates made by officials of the government, no less than 15 per cent. of the food products consumed in this country are fraudently adulterated. Every adulteration is dangerous, but at least 2 per cent of these adulterations are absolutely injurious to health. In payment for this poisonous food the American people give no less than $156,000,000 of their earnings every year, while the entire consumption of fraudulently adultersted food reaches the amazing total of $1,-170,000,000. Escaping the Scylla of the bright green pickle, they are liable to be cast away upon the Charybdis of the preserved canned meat or the golden hue of the butter. Reinforced by evidence collected, and exhaustive chemical analyses rendered by the United States bureau of chemistry, Senator Mc Cumber, of North Dakota, chairman of the Senate committee on manufacturers, will make an effort at the coming session of Congress to eradicate this growing evil by throwing the aegis of a general law about the dining table of the nation. But the very figures given above show what a task he has before him. The profits from these adulterated foods are so immense that a large corruption fund is always available to be used to prevent adverse legislation and money is a potential factor in all legislative bodies.

SECRETARY OF WAR WILLIAM H. TAFT, guest of honor at the annual banquet of the Commercial Club, in Kansas City, last night, in responding to the toast "The Philippines," said "the Philippine Islands must be ours for more than a generation and probably those called on to act as legislators will not live to see the day when separation consistent with the welfare of the Philippine can be made." Thus vanishes the hope of Philippine independence, which the people of those unfortunate islands were led to believe they would soon have after they were relieved of the "Spanish yoke!"

IN THE opening sermon of the twenty eighth annual meeting of the Columbia Association of Baptist Churches at the Metropolitan Baptist Church in Washington last evening, Rev. W. M. Nevins scored the home for its lack of religious training, and declared this neglect to be the direct cause of anarchy and lawlessness. The preacher struck the nail on the head. Religious training or indeed most any other kind of training at home is rapidly becoming a lost art, the ill effects of which are but too plainly evident to the observant.

Philadelphia iron and steel interests have just received information of the discovery of another immense deposit of red hematite iron ore in Minnesota. It underlies farm lands in Aikin and Crow Wing counties, along the Northern Pacific from Duluth. It lies southwest from the famous Mesaba range. Like the other Superior ranges, however, it is controlled by the steel trust, so the public will not be benefitted by the discovery.

IT IS STATED that President Roosevelt will indorse a bill to be introduced in Congress during the coming session which will provide for the abolition of the Isthmian Canal Commission and place the construction of the canal directly under the President of the United States. At the present rate of progress the President is making, it will not be long before he is the "whole thing."

TURKEYS are said to be plentilul and cheap in Pennsylvania, Maryland and many places in Virginia. This is gratifying to those who contemplate turkey on Thanksgiving Day, but that day is over a week off and there is plenty of time for dealers to raise prices.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

The first Cabinet wedding since the marriage of Miss Helen Hay, daughter of the Secretary of State, to Payne Whitney, was celebrated at noon today in St. John's Church, when Miss Anne Hitchcock became the bride of Commander William Sims, U. S. N. Rev. Dr. Roland Cotton Smith performed the ceremony in the presence of a brilliant audience composed of the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, Cabinet members and their families, the diplomatic corps and a host of army and navy people. Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the Hitchcock home, attended by President and Mrs. Roosevelt, the members of the Cabinet and the families of the contracting parties. The church was undecorated except for a great bank of chrysanthemums at the altar. The bride wore white satin, with old lace draperies and a lace veil. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids. Her sister, Miss Margaret D. Hitchcock, was maid of honor, wearing a ace dress with silk coat and a plumed hat. It was learned today that the Keep Commission which has been investigating business methods in the various departments, will recommend to the President the pensioning of aged employees. Much of the work in the departments is carried on in an old fashioned, easy way, due, it is claimed, to the age and antequated ideas of these employees. According to the Keep Commission plan, these employees would be demitted and finally retired on a pension.

M. Jusserand, the French Ambassador, called at the State Department this morning and in the absence of Secretary Root had a conference with Assistant Secretary Bacon on the controversy existing between his government and that of Venezuela. When asked about the present situation of the case M. Jusserand, said: "There is no change. And because there is no change the situation is bad." Recently President Castro, in the course of the negotiations which are being conducted by United States Minister Russell, requested that the precise words in his communication to the French Charge, M. Taigny, which were offensive to the French government should be indicated to him. While France regarded this as a mere evasion with great patience the French government has sent another communication through Minister Russell once more indicating the offensive portions of Castro's note. There the situation stands at present. If Castro will withdraw the words to which France objects the incident will be closed. Otherwise it is quite possible that the patience of France may become exhausted and that she will resort to forcible measures to maintain her dignity.

Commissioner Yerkes, of the Internal Revenue Department, announced this morning that the law was very plain in providing for the adjustment of internal revenue tax on liquor destroyed by fire, as with the Overholt distillery case, of Bradford, Pa., where $724,000 of tax is involved. Mr. Yerkes says the ordinary procedure is for the distiller, where the spirits have been destroyed by fire, to present a claim of abatement of the amount of tax on the spirit, accompanied by affidavits and other proof, showing that the loss and destruction of property was without any fraud, collusion or negligence on the part of the owner. The revenue officer then examined the claim and the accompanying papers. If in the judgement of the commissioner the facts developed were sufficient to enter an order of abatement, this was recommended to the Secretary of the Treasury and passed by him.

Correspondence of a rather sensational nature between President Roosevelt and Henry M. Whitney, the recent democratic candidate for lieutenant governor of Massachusetts, has been made public. The controversy grows out of the questions of free hides and reciprocity with Canada, which figured in the recent Massachusetts campaign. Mr. Whitney, democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, in a letter to the President says Mr. Roosevelt has done him great injustice, and claims to be a fair fighter in his humble way. The President says Mr. Whitney made misstatements and refuses to talk with him.

The exchange of ratifications of the peace treaty between Russia and Japan which was concluded at Portsmouth has been postponed. Yesterday a tentative arrangement was made to have the exchanges take place tomorrow in the diplomatic room at the State Department. It developed, however, this morning that this was inconvenient to M. Takahira, the Japanese Minister, who will represent his government in making the exchange, and the date for the formality has been left open. It is expected that the exchange will be made some time this week.

Such practice, he says, would greatly decrease the expense of the comm ssion and result in a valuable economy. Over 650 different kinds of examinations were given during the year, of which 231 were educational and 419 non-educational tests. For all branches of the service 148,730 persons were examined, 116,-019 passed, and 89,427 were appointed.

Suicide of a Washingtonian.

A man who registered at the Cosmopolitan Hotel, Chambers street and West Broadway, New York, as H. F. Newton, Washington, shot and killed himself yesterday afternoon. He was about 5 feet 5 inches tall, wore a gray suit and white vest and low patent-leather shoes. The body was taken to the Leonard street station. No motive for the suicide is known.

Newton entered the hotel about 9 o'clock yesterday morning and asked for a room. He was assigned to one and went there immediately. He was not seen again until 2 o'clock, when a chambermaid entered his room with a pass key and found him lying on the bed fully dressed, but with life extinct.

The proprietor was notified and an ambulance from the Hudson Street Hospital called. The surgeon found a revolver lying by his side and said that he had been dead several hours. The only letters or papers found were two cards. One of them read: "Henry F. Newton, District Title Insurance Company, 169 Thirteenth street northwest, Washington, D. C." The other was an identification card issued by a Michigan company. It bore the same name, but gave the address as 2510 Nineteenth street northwest, Washington, D. C. The police communicated with the authorities at Washington after removing the body to the station.

Steamer Lost.

The Norwegian steamer Turbin, with her captain and crew of about sixteen men, is thought to have foundered in a terrific gale which swept over Nova Scotia last Friday. The coasting steamer Edna R., which arrived at Clark's Harbor yesterday from Mud Island, brought news that on Friday about 5 p. m., a large steamer, supposed to be the Turbin, struck Black Rock Ledge, off the south coast of the province, backed off in a few miutes, and then disappeared in the raging sea. Persons on the island who saw the steamer strike on the ledge were a considerable distance away, and owing to the tremendous sea running it was impossible to launch a boat. No person could be discerned aboard the craft, and so quickly did the steamer go down that no opportunity was given the crew to fight for their lives. No boat could have lived an instant in the sea that was running. While the craft hung on the rocks, the seas made a clean breach over her. Suddenly a giant comber lifted her from her resting place, and the next instant she took the fatal plunge, carrying, it is believed, all down with her. The Turbin was bound from Sydney with a cargo of coal for Yarmouth. She was in command of Capt. Knudseen, and had a crew of sixteen or eighteen, all Norwegians.

Death from Blood Poisoning.

Miss Sarah Atkinson died at 5:45 o'clock yesterday morning in the Norfolk Protestant Hospital from the effects of blood poison, caused by a criminal operation with which she charged Dr. L. K. Chiles, in an ante-mortem statement, of performing. He is now out of jail under a bond of $10,000. Miss Atkinson was 24 years of age and the daughter of S. Atkinson, a carbuilder. She had been in the hospital for a week, with some prospect of surviving the effects of the criminal operation. Meantime Dr. Chiles and Car Inspector Franklin, a young man who lives at Lamberts Point, were arrested on the affidavit of the dying girl to the effect that they were responsible for her condition. Franklin was released on a bond of $1,500, and when there seemed to be some prospect that the girl might live, Dr. Chiles was released on a bond of $10,000 after a hearing in the Corporation Court. Dr. Chiles was first accused of a criminal operation, but, with the death of the girl, the charge will be changed to murder in the second degree.

Baptist General Association.

The final meeting of the eighty-second annual session of the Baptist General Association of Virginia was held last night in the First Baptist Church of Charlottesville, the exercises being given up to a presentation of views of the World's Baptist Congress, the speakers being Drs. C. S. Garner, R. H. Pitt, J. Ryland Knight, W. H. Whitsitt and R. B. Garrett.

The committee on co-operation made a report. It says: "The total amount received from all of the churches for the year ending October 31 is $121,721.17, an increase of $7,393.99. When we take into consideration the fact that last year we received by special donations $4,500, we find the actual increase in the contributions from the churches to be $11,893.99.

The increase is distributed between the several boards as follows: State missions, $3,843.30; Sunday school and Bible board, $135.67; education board, $52.51 foreign missions, $4,147.86; home missions, $1,595.46. Twenty-three of the district associations show an increase in their gifts to the several boards and four a decrease. Number of persons baptized during the year 6,366, an increase of 609 over last year. Number of churches in the State without pastors, 150; number of Baptist churches in the State, 1,013.

"Of the 1,013 churches of the State we find from the books of the treasurer that 126 churches failed to contribute any amount to State missions, 213 to the Sunday School and Bible Board, 213 to the Education Board, 147 to foreign missions, 162 to home missions, 267 to the ministers' relief fund, 167 to the orphanage and 77 churches failed to contribute one cent to any of the boards."

Dr. M. Ashby Jones and others spoke to the report and all the speakers laid much emphasis upon that part of the report which spoke of the dereliction of the 77 churches, and the sentiment of the body was to the effect that "this shall not continue longer."

The report on temperance was taken up out of order and quickly disposed of after very brief talks by several of the members. The report recognizes the Anti-saloon League as the present great agency for carrying out temperance reform, and Dr. Pilcher offered an amendment to the report recommending that proper effort be made to have the legislature amend present laws so as to bring distilleries under the operation of the Mann law; to amend the law as to social clubs; to provide that saloons in cities be held to hours from 6 a. m. to 10 p. m.; that the present laws be changed so that imprisonment shall be the punishment for violation of liquor license laws, and that a law be enacted making the possession of a United States tax receipt for the sale of liquor to be regarded as prima facia evidence of the sale of spirits by the holder of such receipts.

Dr. W. W. Smith, a messenger from the Virginia Methodist Conference, appeared before the association, asking the body's consideration in organising an interdenominational commission to abate the evils of Sunday railroad traffic in the State. A committee, consisting of President William Ellison, Judge W. W. Moffatt and Dr. R. B. Garrett, was named to act in conjunction with similar committees from the Presbyterian Synod and Methodist Conference.

The report of the Woman's Missionary Union showed that $30,301.68 had been raised during the year, an increase over the previous year of over $6,000.

Today's Telegraphic News

Hooligans Led by Father John.

London, Nov. 21.—Jan Kardoff, who was a sergeant among the marines and sailors who mutinied recently at Kronstadt, Russia, has arrived in London, and, according to his story of what took place there, the outrages which marked the mutiny were committed by Hooligans who were led by the well-known reactionary priest, Father John of Kronstadt. Kardoff declares that Father John, who is known in Russia as a miracle working priest, and has even been hailed by peasants in many of the provinces as the "Messiah," with other reactionaries bribed the roughs of the town to join in a procession which came into collision with a peaceful demonstration organized by the mutineers. A fight between the Hooligans and the mutineers ensued. As soon as the roughs had been dispersed the troops refused to fire on the mutineers, who were able to hold the town for two days. During this time no injury was done to property and order was observed. The officers and priests again attempted to bring the Hooligans into collision with the mutineers and the latter became angry, bombarded the forts and the casino, and captured a cruiser. The officers and reactionary priests then arranged with the police for the firing of the town. Fires were started at the forty-two different points. The citizens of the town became panic-stricken, and fled and the Hooligans plundered the town at will. This led to the sending of two divisions of troops to Kronstadt, and the mutineers were overpowered.

Father John of Kronstadt, to whom the blame for the outrages at Kronstadt is thus attributed, is one of the strongest reactionaries in Russia. He has wielded a powerful influence in Russia for some time, became of the power attributed to him to perform miracles. Persons have been known to travel hundreds of miles to beseech him to perform miracles in their behalf. Among the peasants at times he has been hailed as the Messiah, and movements were even started to proclaim him as such. His influence is said to have even been exerted over the Czar on several occasions.

The Panama Canal.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 21.—After having been largely influenced, as they claim, by the terms of the President's letter of instructions into recommending a sea-level canal, the decision of the world-famous board of consulting engineer is likely to be tossed into the waste basket by the Isthmian Canal Commission of non-experts. The disagreement is so marked that Congress may have to say the final word as to the kind of canal that shall be constructed. The five foreigners on the advisory board, representing the best engineering talent in the world, who joined with three of the eight Americans for a sea-level waterway, are clazed by the declaration, made on high authority yesterday that the commission intends to ignore their recommendation. They had been led to believe by the President's invitation for international co-operation and the terms of instruction upon which they based their own services and observations that their judgment was to be final, and they are deeply disappointed with what they are pleased to term scant courtesy and consideration. They cannot understand the anatagonistic attitude of the commission in announcing that they will continue their work on the theory that a lock canal is first to be constructed. It was announced by the President yesterday afternoon that he will not recommend any change in plans from locks to sea level until it has been positively demonstrated to him that such a change is for the best. He thinks that time, cost and durability should be taken into consideration. If he becomes convinced that the sea-level plan is the best, and the commission favors it, the matter will be submitted to Congress.

Unrest in Poland.

Warsaw, Poland, Nov. 21.—The unrest among the people of Poland has become so noticeable that Governor General Skalton, known as the autocrat of Poland, has become imbued with the idea that he is in danger of assassination, and unusual percautions are taken at all times to protect him. The governor sleeps in a different room in the palace every night so as to prevent any possible chance for word being sent to the revolutionaries in advance as to what room he will occupy, any particular night.

On the day that Bishop Heronimus was buried the police closed all the shops. Strong forces of infantry were lined up on either side of the street keeping the crowds back on the sidewalks, and traffic was stopped for two hours. The governor drove to and from the cathedral in a closed carriage, surrounding by Cossacks, and the horses were lashed to a gallop.

Despite the official declarations made that Poland has been pacified, similar precautions are taken every time the governor appears outside the palace, showing that the official does not believe the public utterances made in his own name.

The Wreck of the Hilda.

St. Malo, Nov. 21.—Four torpedo boats and one destroyer, the Lancier, as well as a large fleet of fishing smacks, are engaged today in scouring the sea in this vicinity in the search for bodies of other victims of the wreck of the Hilda. All hope of finding any more survivors has been abandoned and all attention is now being directed to trying to recover as many of the corposes as possible. The number of casualties is now estimated at 163, it having been discovered that more persons sailed on the ill-fated vessel than was at first supposed. The loss of the passenger list in the sinking of the steamer makes it impossible to obtain definite information beyond the reports from families of missing persons supposed to have sailed on the Hilda. A total of sixty-four bodies has now been found. The steamer is a total wreck, and no attempt will be made to raise her.

Sudden Death of a Virginian.

New York, Nov. 21.—Dr. J. A. Bickers, sixty-nine years old, of Madison, Va., died suddenly this morning in the Astor House, from a paralytic shock. He had been traveling about with his son and until stricken seemed in good health. He arrived at the hotel Sunday night, and intended to leave Thursday with his son, for a trip to New Orleans. Last night after going to his room, he became ill, and Dr. George D. Harrison found him suffering from a stroke of paralysis. Dr. George Bickers will take his father's body to Madison.

Senator Platt on the Stand.

New York, Nov. 21.—The insurance investigating committee was in session again today. Thomas C. Cowan, a former magistrate and a member of Tammany Hall, was called and testified that he was employed in the real estate department of the Equitable. His salary for several years had been $6,000, but recently it was reduced to $5,400. "What did you do this year?" "Nothing much," was the reply. "What does the Equitable pay you $6,000 a year for?" "To look after some of its business." "Now, as a matter of fact, you act as an intermediary between the city departments and the Equitable?" "Yes." Mr. Cowan said that he got the personal tax assessment of Mr. Alexander, Mr. Hyde and Mr. Tarbell reduced. Senator Thomas C. Platt was called. The aged Senator came into the commi-tee room supported by his counsel, Robert C. Morris. His steps faltered and he needed assistance to reach the witness chair. The Senator acknowledged that he had received campaign contributions from insurance companies, particularly the Equitable. The contributions, witness said, had continued during all of ten years. They were for State campaign purposes, and were in sums of ten thousand dollars each. The Senator said he had not requested the contributions. He also admitted that the Mutual Life Insurance Company had contributed at times ten thousand dollars. The Senator had no recollection of attempting to collect $140,000 for the Harrison campaign. "Did the insurance companies ever seek your influence in legislative matters in return for monies contributed to the campaign fund, was asked? "Never." "Do you know of the contribution of $50,000 to the last Presidential campaign by the Equitable and Mutual Life?" No I know nothing of it." "What did the insurance officials expect to get for contributing to the campaign fund?" "They expected to get aid through me by defending them when occasion arose. There was never any occasion. They never came to me." "They thought you could control legislation?" "Yes." "Could you?" "I could not control it. I might influence it." "As a matter of fact, when the insurance companies pay money to the campaign fund, they expect the legislators to be under moral obligation not to attack them?" "It would be involved." "Isn't that what is involved?" "Yes." "Senator Platt, you are excused," said Mr. Hughes, and Senator Platt thanked the committee and was led out of the room.

Reply of the Beef Packers.

Chicago, Nov. 21. Announcement is made that the reply of the prosecution in the beef packers' conspiracy case to the special pleas and charges filed by the defendants is complete. They will be filed immediately in the United States District Court and arguments on the proposition may come up within a week.

In the answer the prosecution will contend the defendants having been barred from any representation in the grand jury room, cannot truthfully or legally contend that they know what took place before the grand jury and cannot tell what testimony was offered and used there. Not knowing what testimony was heard before the grand jury, the prosecution contends, the packers cannot maintain the charges that evidence secured by Commissioner of Corporations Garfield was in any way utilized.

Home Rule for Ireland.

Liverpool, Nov. 21.—The Post says it has been informed that Sir Anthony McDonnell, under secretary for Ireland, has framed a new revolution scheme for Irish affairs. Although his plan stops short of home rule, it turns the government of Ireland over to the Irish to a great extent. There is no chance of the scheme being endorsed by the present government, but as Sir Anthony MacDonnell will probably retain his present position when the liberals go into office, as it is expected they will do, when the next general election is held, he will present his plan at that time. It is understood that the scheme is based principally on committing large administrative powers to a board which shall sit at Dublin. This board is to be chosen by the different county councils.

American Federation of Labor.

Pittsburg, Nov. 21.—President Gompers called the eighth day's session of the American Federation of Labor convention to order shortly after nine o'clock this morning. The report of the committee on the President's report was finished. The strike of the typographical union was endorsed. Scathing addresses were made against the socialists and industrial workers of the world. David Goldstein, of Boston, in this connection made sweeping statements against Eugene V. Debs and socialism. Much time was given to discussion of the subject and at times the debate became quite acrimonious. A resolution denouncing the Western Federation of Miners was introduced, but it was declared out of order, and Max Hayes arose to speak.

Recites Himself Into Jail.

Kansas City, Nov. 21.—Kyle Fox offered to sing a comic song in the Criminal Court yesterday to convince Judge Wofford that he was a real man of the stage. "Recite it; that will do," said the judge. Fox began:

Now Johnnie was a joker,
He went upon the stage;
Had lots of nerve, would never swerve,
Thought he'd be the rage.
He waltzed out to the footlights,
All painted like a moke;
The ladies sighed, the gallery cried,
When Johnnie cracked a jo-

"That'll do," interrupted the judge. "One year in jail. I believe you are an actor." Fox was caught at night eating his fill of crackers and cheese in a grocery store. He pleaded guilty, but said he was hungry.

Paris, Nov. 21.—At a meeting of the Council of Ministers it was decided to debar all members of the Cabinet from all political activity in the provinces in the approaching senatorial elections, which will immediately precede the election of a new President.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 21.—The stock market during the first hour was even larger and broader than that of yesterday, with orders for unusually large blocks all over the room on both the buying and selling sides. According to room gossip the buying is mostly for large speculators, and traders on the floor and outside of the exchange, and selling apparently was chiefly realising sales on lines of long stock. At the end of the first hour the supply of stock became large enough to force general concessions from the highest range, but the demand continued good. In government bonds the new fours were down ½; other bonds were unchanged.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Dr. William M. Dailey, a dentist, ministered to Prince Louis of Battenberg while the British Admiral was in New York. He filled four of the Prince's teeth and charged him $1,000, for which he was paid by check.

Carl Eckhardt, a hotel-keeper in Bethlehem, Pa., committed suicide last night by cutting arteries in his wrist and turning on the gas in his room.

Thomas Taylor died at Mount Holly, N. J., today from an attack of hiccoughs, from which he suffered for about two weeks. Every remedy known to science was resorted to, but in vain.

A Tribute.

Ah, soon 'neath drifting snowflakes,
My mould'ring dust will lie!
Shall I be there? No, never—
But, far beyond the sky
My soul on heav'n-born pinions
Will long have soar'd away—
Ere its once mortal temple
Shall crumble or decay!

Ah, yes; within the portals
Of heaven's gate swung wide,
I'll roam the Golden City
Just "on the other side."
I'll view its hallow'd glories,
I'll breathe its healing air,
And meet my erstwhile lost ones,
All safely gather'd there!

Why mourn a tired pilgrim,
When life's declining sun
Drifts into death's lone twilight—
Its transient thread fall-spun?
Why grieve—e'en if 'tis swiftly
Ebbs out one's troubl'd day—
The cherish'd form left slumb'ring
Awhile from sight away?

Do not detain a spirit
That lays its casket down,
While borne aloft by angels
To wear a gold-wrought crown
To meet the King of Glory,
To brush His garments' hem,
While bringing star-bright trophies
To grace His diadem!

Dedicated with profound regard to the memory of Mrs. Alice Nutt Wise.

No Poison in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

From Napier, New Zealand, Herald: Two years ago the Pharmacy Board of New South Wales, Australia, had an analysis made of all the cough medicines that they declared were entirely free from all poisons. This exception was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, made by the Chamberlain Medicine Company, Des Moines, Iowa, U. S. A. The absence of all narcotics makes this remedy the safest and best that can be had; and it is with a feeling of security that any mother can give it to her little ones. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is especially recommended by its makers for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. When taken in time it prevents pneumonia. This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Board of Fire Wardens.

A called meeting of the Board of Fire Wardens was held last night. Some routine business was transacted and the new rules governing the paid members of the fire department were adopted, the most important of which are the following:

19. Employees of the department are positively prohibited from entering saloons or drinking while on duty.

20. Employees of the department must wear their uniforms between the hours of 8 a. m. and 10 p. m., except when engaged in cleaning houses or apparatus. This law will be rigidly enforced.

21. The drivers of hose wagons shall carry not more than 4 persons, including themselves, on their respective wagons, either going to or returning from a fire. The drivers will be held strictly accountable for the violation of this rule.

23. Willful violation of these rules will be considered sufficient cause for dismissal from the department.

Handsome Buildings.

Among the number of dwellings erected in this city during this year but few are more attractive as homes than the three now about ready for occupancy at the corner of King and Patrick streets, designed by Messrs. Mullet & Co., of Washington, and contracted by Mr. Joseph F. Rodgers, of this city, for Messrs. Fred and William Schuler. They are 3-story houses with bay windows; are built of light colored mottled brick, the brick work having been done by Messrs Gilmore and Howard. All modern appointments in sanitary plumbing, gas and electric lighting have been utilized; tiled baths, kitchen range and furnace heat have been incorporated into the structures, which contain parlor, dining room, kitchen and five bedrooms, all furnished with closets. This improvement has removed an unsightly vacancy and relieves to some extent a long-felt need in our city of medium size up-to-date dwelling houses.

Funerals.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Susan E. Fuller took place at 10 o'clock this morning from the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. H. C. Ansley, No. 813 Prince street, and were attended by a large number of friends of the family of the deceased. The services were impressively conducted by Rev. Drs. Brooke and Fisher, after which the remains were sent to Atlanta for interment. The floral tributes were beautiful. The pallbearers were Dr. W. M. Smith, Dr. W. R. Purvis, and Messrs. W. A. Smoot, W. B. Smoot, Geo. S. French and C. W. Ashby.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary J. Hanzmon took place this afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Messrs. Jeffers and Ewell.

Refused to Prosecute.

Officer Mayhugh succeeded yesterday in identifying the two men who, it was alleged, held up Mr. George Emmert last Saturday night in the northern portion of the city. Mr. Emmert was summoned to appear at the station house, and upon arriving there refused to prosecute the accused. According to his statement the two men who accosted him are acquaintances, and they demanded that he return to the saloon and sell them half a pint of liquor. This Mr. Emmert refused to do, as it was then after 12 o'clock. One of the men then took his (Emmert's) pistol from his pocket and pointed it at his face. They later went off, carrying the weapon with them.

Aid for Distressed Hebrews.

About $400 has already been collected in Alexandria for the benefit of distressed Hebrews in Russia. The committee expect to increase this amount, as some who have signified their intention to contribute will doubtless do so. It is the intention of those who are making the collection to send their first remittance on Thursday next and all to whom this cause may appeal are requested to hand in their donations by that time.

Deputy Clerk.

Mr. Charles Bendheim, clerk of the courts, today tendered to Mr. N. S. Greenaway the position of deputy clerk, which position he held under the late John S. Beach. Mr. Greenaway accepted the offer and this evening qualified before Judge L. C. Barley. Mr. Greenaway will at once take up the work which he recently relinquished. The action of Mr. Bendheim and the acceptance by Mr. Greenaway gives general satisfaction.

Henry Street.

People living on Henry street and others owning property on that thoroughfare are loud in their complaints of the action of the Washington-Southern Railway Company in neglecting to remove the track now that the company has abandoned the street. No cars have been run over the track since trains began to pass around the city—over a month ago. It is said that the City Council will be asked to take action in the matter.

Injunction.

Judge L. C. Barley today granted a temporary injunction restraining Alexander Lyles from removing or interfering with a drain pipe in the alley between his property and that of Frank P. Quinn, situated on the north side of Prince street between Fairfax and Royal, which pipe is used by the complainant to drain the sewerage of his property to the Prince street sewer.

Present for Lee Camp.

Congressman Rixey has written to Mr. J. M. Johnson, Commander, of Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans of this city, telling him that he has a set of the Official Records of the Rebellion at his disposal and which he will be pleased to have sent to the camp. Mr. Johnson has replied, telling Congressman Rixey that the camp will be pleased to receive the records.

An Interesting Meeting.

Perseverance Tent No. 1098, I. O. R. held another very interesting meeting last night when three candidates were initiated, and one was admitted by card from Golden Rule Tent of Washington.

After the transaction of regular routine of business, Mrs. Lola V. Marks, P. C. R. of Onward Tent, was invited to preside over the "Good of Order," when the following programme was rendered.

Remarks by H. C. R., W. W. Cordell; song by Mr. Chas. Bennett of Jno. B. Henderson Tent, of Washington; remarks by Mrs. Salkeld, Chief Ruler, Golden Rule Tent; recitation by Mr. C. R. Herbert, of this city; remarks by Mrs. Whitehead, Shepherd of Eastport Tent, of Annapolis, Md.

A recess was subsequently declared during which the younger members indulged in games.

A special train on the electric railway will bring a large crowd to this city to participate in the grand rally at the Baptist church at 3.15 p. m. next Sunday.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Isaac Napper, colored, arrested by Officer Nicholson charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, forfeited $5 collateral by failing to appear. A warrant was issued for his rearrest on a charge of assaulting Louis Carrington, colored, with a knife. Carrington had been arrested by Officers Bettis and Henderson on a charge of disorderly conduct, but was dismissed.

James Ross, colored, arrested by Constable Cornell, was detained for action by the Alexandria county authorities.

George Bowen, colored, arrested by Officers Roberts and Young charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Ellen Kemper, colored, arrested by Officers Lyles and Garvey charged with disorderly conduct, was sent to jail for 30 days.

A white man, who had been arrested at the instance of a woman on a charge of disorderly conduct, was dismissed, the charge not having been sustained

Miss Brown's in Town.

If you want to enjoy a long hearty laugh of 180 minutes go to see "The Real Widow Brown," which comes to the Opera House tonight. It possesses the essential qualities and virtues of a genuine farce comedy—clean, pure, exhilariating, and with sufficient spice of captivating songs and clever dances to compose one of the best drawing attractions on the road. The author has constructed an ingenious plot on which the laughable incidents hinge, a seemingly strange anomoly, as the average farce comedy is as barren as the Klondyke is of a dress suit case. Its cardinal object is to make you laugh and enjoy yourself. You may have a thousand domestic troubles and business cares, but you'll forget them for the three hours you spend in the fascinating company of "The Real Widow Brown."

Investigation Continued.

Dr. Ashton, coroner of Alexandria county held an inquest yesterday afternoon at Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaking parlors over the remains of Frank De Lane, whose mutilated body was found beside the railway tracks near Brick Haven early Sunday morning. The jury was adjourned until Friday afternoon, when the investigation will be continued at the courthouse.

Death of Mrs. Dunn.

Mrs. Dunn, widow of Maj. W. M. S. Dunn and mother of City Engineer E. C. Dunn, died at her home in Nelson county yesterday morning. Years ago Mrs. Dunn resided in this city with her husband, who was at time superintendent of the Virginia Midland Railway, and will be kindly remembered by the older residents of Alexandria.

Victim of Another Accident.

Mr. Amos Entwisle, who had one of his legs broken by a heavy piece of iron falling upon it while at work recently at the Southern Railway shops, was the victim of another accident at his home on south Fairfax street early this morning. While in the yard he made a misstep and sprained the injured limb.

Arrival of Phosphate Rock.

The four-masted schooner Bertram, from Charlottee Harbor, has arrived with phosphate rock for the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company. The schooner is at the new wharf recently constructed by the company between Queen and Princess streets.

Woman's Auxiliary.

It is urged upon all members of the Woman's Auxiliary to R. E. Lee Camp to be present at the meeting which will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Lee Camp Hall. Business of importance is to be transacted.

Personal.

Mr. James Hartley, of Richmond, is visiting relatives in this city.

Judge Charles E. Nicol, of Manassas, judge of this, the Sixteenth, judicial circuit, composed of the counties of Fauquier, Loudoun, Prince William, Fairfax, Alexandria county and city, is prominently spoken of as a candidate for the Court of Appeals of Virginia should any change be made in that body.

The Park Place Presbyterian Church of Norfolk has called Rev. Dr. F. J. Brooke, of this city, to the pastorate, and it is likely that he will accept.

Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her, so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store, price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

The Exact Thing Required for Constipation.

"As a certain purgative and stomach purifier Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets seem to be the exact thing required, strong enough for the most robust, yet mild enough and safe for children and without that terrible griping so common to most purgatives," say R. S. Webster & Co., Udora, Ontario, Canada. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Do not be deceived by counterfeits when you buy Witch Hazel Salve. The name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. is on every box of the genuine. Piles in their worst form will soon pass away if you will apply DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve night and morning. Best for Cuts, Burns, Boils, Tetter, Eczema, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mr. R. D. Rodgers will conduct services at the Village Chapel again tonight.

The Lady Maccabees meet tonight and expect a full attendance of the members.

The Up-to-Date Club will give their first grand ball of the season at Schuler's Hall tonight.

The jumper Pacetti, owned by Mr. Courtland Smith, has been destroyed as a result of injuries she received during the running of the steeplechase Thursday at Benning.

The rainy and gloomy weather which set in Saturday night was followed by clear conditions early this morning, since which time conditions have been pleasant.

George Forbes and Maggie Brooks, both colored, of this city, were married by Rev Henderson last night.

Just received 50 bushels select Jackson creek oysters—served on half shell at The Elkton.

Alleged Plot.

Evidence obtained by the commission which is investigating the discovery by the secret police Saturday last of a considerable quantity of arms, ammunition and accoutrements in a house, in the Cerra suburb, of Havana, is tending to implicate a few men of some prominence. The government has no doubt that the material came from the United States, and it is seeking to learn who were the purchasers.

Government officials now admit that they have received various secret advices regarding contemplated uprisings before election day in various parts of the island, particularly in the provinces of Santiago, Santa Clara and Pimar del Rio, with a probable attack on the palace in Havana. The object of the latter, according to the officials, appears to be the removal, possibly assassination, of President Palma.

The plotters, it is pointed out, are well aware since there is now no vice president that the election of President Palma's successor would, according to the constitution, be in the hands of Congress, and that the liberals, with the help of a few independents, could control both houses.

The government has not revealed its information as to the extent of these plots but special measures have been taken for guarding the palace. The facts that the President and his family are remaining at home, and that troops are being sent to the points where, according to reports the plotting originated, are considered significant.

So far as known, however, these plots are not generally backed by any large party, and, whether they are widespread or otherwise, the active watchfulness against any form of uprising is believed to have squelched any ambitions of the plotters.

Many Persons in Peril.

Many lives were endangered and property to the value of $50,000 was destroyed yesterday by a fire which almost consumed the Commercial Building, at 9212-9218 Commercial avenue, Chicago. The first two stores of the structure were used as stories and the three floors above were divided into apartments.

On the first floor was also situated the postoffice of the suburb of South Chicago, and this, too, was badly damaged.

Mrs. Mary Broadhurst was severely hurt by falling through a skylight. She was picked up while unconscious and carried to the street by a fireman. Eight other people were also carried from the building by firemen, none of them, however, being badly hurt.

About 200 people were in the building when the fire broke out, but with the exception of those aided by the firemen and several others, who were compelled to descend ladders, all of them reached the street without difficulty.

V. M. I. Visitors.

General Shipp, superintendent of the Virginia Military Institute, yesterday, at the request of Alexander Hamilton, of Petersburg, president of the board of visitors, notified the members that a meeting of the board would be held in the office of the superintendent of public instruction, Richmond, at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening.

At this meeting the situation at the institute with reference to the third class will be considered, and it is expected that action will be taken on the paper submitted by Governor Montague on his visit to Lexington last Thursday and signed by the third class. The 10 days within which time the recalcitrant third classmen were given to express their regrets for presenting the paper of November 2 threatening to withdraw from the school unless food conditions improved, will expire on the 23d.

The Christmas number of Everybody's Magazine has been received from its publishers in New York. It is exceptionally strong in all departments, especially so in fiction. The first installment of Rex E. Breach's romance promises a stirring story. Booth Tarkington contributes one of his best love stories. A characteristic story by O. Henry is enjoyable, as are the other clever stories by well-known writers. A narrative of peculiar interest tells of the annual Moslem pilgrimage to Mecca. Two articles of interest to women are "The Autobiography of an Old Maid" and the history of the career of "Ell Rawls Reader." In "Frenzied Finance" Mr. Lawson makes public a ghastly plot, and in "Soldiers of the Common Good" Mr. Russell tells of the brave and thoughtful men who are striving to promote the greater welfare of the millions.

WEAK HEART S

are caused by Indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of Indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart.

Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.
MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

Tides.

The following is given in brief as the theory most generally entertained by scientists, with a few exceptions, concerning tides: It is assumed that the moon, acting alone, would not only raise a wave on the side of the earth nearest to it by gravitation, but would also draw the earth itself far enough out of its course to leave behind some of the water on the farther side, which water would then be raised relatively to the earth's surface and constitute the second tidal wave. The sun alone would act similarly, although its tide raising effect is only about two-fifths that of the moon. Now, at new moon the sun and moon "pull together" and give higher tides than at the first and third quarters, when the sun draws its right angles to the line of the moon's attraction, and at full moon, when the sun is on the opposite side of the earth from the moon, virtually the same effect is observed as at new moon, but the double tide raising action of the sun would again be superimposed on that of the moon and give tides on opposite sides as high as those a fortnight before.

Silent Wisdom.

Keep still. When trouble is brewing, keep still. Even when slander is getting on his legs, keep still. When your feelings are hurt, keep still—till you recover from your excitement at any rate. Things look differently through an unagitated eye.

Dr. Burton relates how once in a commotion he wrote a letter and sent it and wished he had not. "In my later years," he said, "I had another commotion and wrote a long letter; but life had rubbed a little sense into me, and I kept that letter in my pocket against the day when I could look it over without agitation and without tears. I was glad I did. Less and less it seemed necessary to send it. I was not sure it would do any hurt, but in my doubtfulness I leaned to reticence, and eventually it was destroyed." Time works wonders. Wait till you can speak calmly, and then you will not need to speak, maybe.

An Antiphony of Love.

A poet has said that "as for Browning's love for his wife nothing more tender and chivalrous has ever been told of ideal lovers in an ideal romance. It is so beautiful a story that one often perfers it to the sweetest or loftiest poem that came from the lips of either." True, yet the lives of the two as poets make the story what it is. Their lives, indeed, were poems, as Milton said poets' lives should be, and their poetry was their life, as Mrs. Browning said should also be true of poets. The world could spare neither the lives nor the poems, and especially would it be poor without those poems in which each sang of the other. Take these together, was there ever, in all the treasury of the world's literature, so angelical an antiphony of love anthemed by the two radiant and immortal lovers themselves?—Richard Watson Gilder in Century.

Boiled Alive.

In English statutes of the sixteenth century the punishment set down for the crime of murdering by poison was boiling alive, and a girl was actually executed in that ghastly fashion. In 1538 Father Stone of Canterbury suffered the same death. A curious account is in existence which gives the amount paid "for two men who set the kettle and parboiled him" and "to the women that scoured the kettle." The sentence was not always carried out with so much ferocity, for culprits were sometimes hanged before being boiled. In one case it is recorded that a man was first hanged, then boiled and then quartered.

Wordsworth.

Wordsworth considered "The Excursion" his best and next to it "The White Doe of Rylstone." Wordsworth said that when he first thought seriously of being a poet he looked into himself to see how he was fitted for the work and seemed to find there "that first great gift, the vital soul," a statement which shows that, whatever other people may think of him, he had a passably fair opinion of himself. He frequently expressed his opinion of his own poetry and once said that he had widened the domain of the poet over a whole field deemed irreclaimable.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death J. E Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and save his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Herb W. Edwards Injured.

Herb W. Edwards, of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. I feel that this bottle of Pain Balm saved me several days' time, to say no thing of the suffering." This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Nature Needs But Little.

Nature needs only a Little Early Riser now and then to keep the bowels clean, the liver active, and the system free from bile, headaches, constipation, etc. The famous little pills "Early Risers" are pleasant in effect and perfect in action. They never gripe or sicken, but tone and strengthen the liver and kidneys. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

But Few Are Free.

But few people are entirely free from indigestion at this season of the year. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is not only the best remedy to use because it digests what you eat but because it also enables the digestive apparatus to assimilate and transform all foods into tissue-building blood. Kodol relieves sour stomach, heart burn, belching, and all forms of Indigestion. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.
